First change of the FPSO 2014 (dating from April 2, 2014)
November 5, 2014
Relevant for all students starting in summer term 2015 or later.

§36, paragraph 1, Nr 3: new version:

„3. a certificate supporting subject specific knowledge in form of a „Graduate Record Examination (GRE) General Test“ or in form of a „Graduate Aptitude Test in Engineering (GATE)“ for applicants having completed their first course of study’s degree in the following countries: China, Bangladesh, India, Pakistan, Iran; for other applicants with a first course of study’s degree, which has not been completed in a signing country of the Lisboa convention of April 11, 1997, the submission of a test as referenced in sentence 1 is recommended, because this test may be later required / demanded if substantial differences regarding the competencies documented by the first course of study’s degree according to paragraph 2 exist; for degrees from signing countries of the Lisboa convention of April 11, 1997 a later demanding does not apply; the exact specifications for conducting the tests will be announced in time on the Web-pages oft the board of examination."

In appendix 2: „Aptitude Test“: in 5.1.1 Nr 1 the following sentence will be appended:

„If according to §36, paragraph 1 Nr 3 a GRE or GATE test must be supplied and if the respective documents are successfully supplied, it will be assumed that regarding the competencies documented by the first course of study’s degree no substantial differences exist in comparison to the level of the reference criteria stated in 5.1.1 Nr 1 sentence 2, and thus the curricular analysis will be conducted according to the aforementioned criteria.“