2. The heading and the introduction to “B Elective Courses Catalog Informatics: Games Engineering” is replaced by the following heading and introduction:

   “B Elective Courses Catalog Informatics: Games Engineering

   1 From the following elective modules, a student has to do 54 credits. 2 Credits from examinations of a module used in a first course of study cannot be used. 3 The following constraints apply for the choice of modules:

   1. Basic Structure (at least 35 credits):

   From the area ‘Internet Technologies’ (specified below) at least 5 credits have to be done, from the area ‘Databases’ at least 6 credits have to be done. From the lines of specialization specified below, two have to be elected. In these two lines of specialization, at least 24 credits have to be done together, at least 10 in each line of specialization.

   2. The remaining credits (up to 19) may be chosen freely:

   (a) additionally from the two areas mentioned above and the two chosen lines of specialization
   (b) or from the other lines of specialization
   (c) or from the additional elective modules mentioned below
   (d) or from the subject areas of the elective module catalog of the master course Informatics.

   4 A module may only be used once.”

(7) In appendix 2: “Aptitude Test”: in 5.1.4. the following sentences 3 and 4 are appended:
3 Applicants entitled for a compensation because of a disability, chronic or longer-lasting disease that file a related application will (deviating from Nr. 5.1.1-5.1.3) be granted an invitation to the second stage of the aptitude test instead of a direct rejection, if they had reached a direct admission or an admission for the second stage if they had reached the best possible mark as their overall mark. 4 Documents supporting that claim have to be filed.

(8) Appendix 3: “Study Plans” will be deleted.
